During the next few weeks, you will receive additional information from Inter-Con regarding your opportunity for employment on this contract. You will receive a company information package that contains employment application documents and other required forms, along with information concerning transition activities. Please do not send the application package back to Inter-Con. A company representative will be visiting each worksite and offering you the opportunity for a personal interview. The representative will collect completed application packages at that time and answer any general questions you may have. Please have copies of all licenses, certificates, and required documentation available with the application package.
